Announcements:

- The Laguna clean up is indefinitely on hold.
- Long Beach Scuba Show is June 21-22, 2008. Info for tickets is available at Sharkys.
- Recent new certifications: Mike and Sharol Carter have finished the Rescue Diver course at Sharkys. Dan Elliott is half way through and planning to go all the way to dive master. Tony and Christine are scheduling classes. Others are invited to join in the remaining courses.

Happenings at Sharky's

- Sharkys is going on a beach dive this Friday and invited others to come along. Saturday,

5/10 they were going on a dive at the Catalina Dive Park.

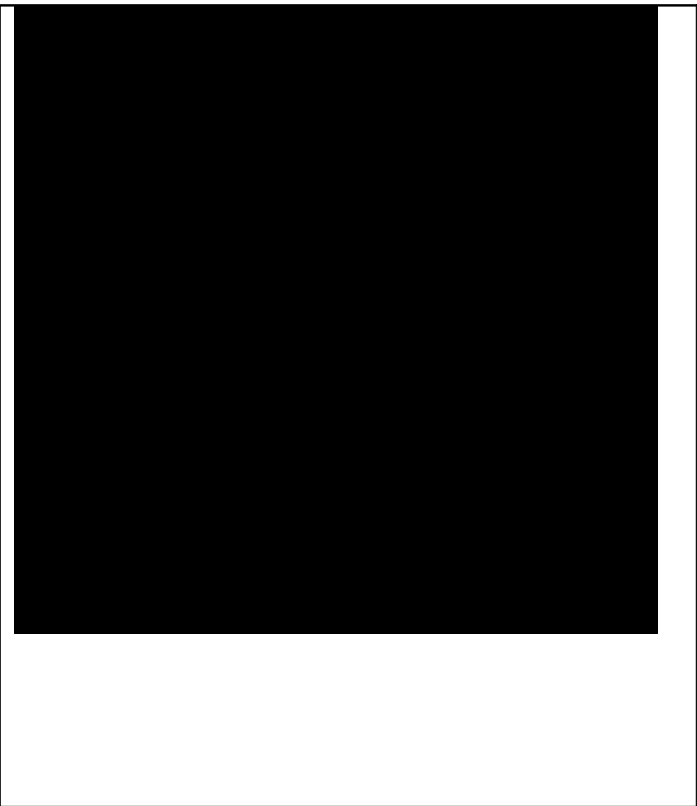

- Classes scheduled at Sharkys include Secondary Care, Rescue Diver, as well as the always running basic and advanced open water classes. Diving is a great family activity. Bring the family along and register for a class.

Club Logo

Is at the top of the minutes. Thanks to the Luxes for their creative design. Plans are being investigated to produce patches and shirts with the logos.

Door Prizes were awarded (donated by Sharkys).

Program

Next Meeting Thursday, July 17 at Michelangelo's in San Dimas. NOTE THAT THIS IS A THIRD THURSDAY AND NOT THE NORMAL SECOND THURSDAY. Next month's speaker was going to include a presentation by Richard Hill, General Manager of Catalina Cylinders, but he has had to reschedule due to his son's high school graduation. We will send an announcement as soon as the replacement program has been arranged. Bring your best pictures (in digital on a flash drive) and lets share our most enjoyable dives and digital trophies.
