Sharkys gave a report of happenings at the shop.

A poll was taken about participation in California Coastal Commission Coastal Cleanup Day on September 20th. No one was able or available to participate.

Opened nomination of officers for next year. No nominations were received. An email will be sent so nominations can be submitted by email.

There was no new business.

The meeting was turned over to the speaker. Rick Hill from Catalina Cylinders showed a video of the making of their tanks. He then spent time answering questions from the audience. There were a lot of good questions. Thank you Rick.

The door prize of a Sharkys gift certificate was awarded to Gailyn Bassler.

The meeting was then closed.
